

Using job adverts to sell your workplace values

There are many ways of advertising your jobs including:

- f* job boards and recruitment websites,
- f* on your own website,
- f* in local papers, local shops and community noticeboards,
- f* in social media (Facebook, Instagram, Twitter, LinkedIn),

Example adverts to attract staff who share your workplace values

Example one: Support worker from Exemplar Health Care (2020)

If you are an exceptionally caring person you will want to work in our exceptional care home.

You will soon see that we are not a standard care home, but a bespoke person centred care home and our staffing level reflects we are able to go that extra mile every day.

Key duties:

Want to work in our exceptional care home? We are able to go that extra mile every day.

Example three: Support worker from Warrington Community Living

Working for a charitable organisation can make a big difference to your role. We are a values-based company who put the people we support first. The organisational purpose is focused on the people we support and making a difference to them. Warrington Community Living don't need to make a profit, we just need to make a difference.

If you are interested in working with us and feel that you have the right values to make a difference, then please click on the links below to take you to the current vacancies at each location.

Who we are looking for:

We are looking for people who care regardless of qualifications or experience. We care more about you sharing and demonstrating our values, which are:

- f* Seeing the possibilities to make positive difference.
- f* Valuing and celebrating individuality and diversity.
- f* Supporting rights, needs, choices and dreams.
- f* Being responsible, sustainable and innovative in our work.

If you do share our values and care, we want you!

We will give you all the training and support you need, such as obtaining a qualification in health and social care.

You will be supported by the organisation to make a difference by not only providing personal care to the people we support but supporting them to take part in a wide range of activities, including arts and crafts, drama, musical evenings, gardening, shopping trips and social occasions.

Please note that all of our positions require an Enhanced DBS check in relation to Children and Adults.

Can you show us how you would treat the people we support, with the dignity and respect they deserve? Are you courageous, willing to champion quality, and raise concerns?

Example four: PA

I am looking for a caring and empathetic person to join my small team as my personal assistant (PA).

Experience of care and/or spinal injury preferred, but not essential as full training will be provided. For me, it's more important that I recruit someone with the right values and behaviours.

I have four key values that I look for in new PAs:

- f* a consideration to diversity
- f* knowing when it's appropriate to step in and help
- f* maintaining a balance between caring and supporting
- f* a willingness to learn.

If you can treat people equally regardless of their culture, religion, age, race, sexual
